Intimate Luxury in the Heart of Dresden

Kempinski

HOTELIERS SINCE 1897

A new level of luxury in the heart of Dresden

The Taschenbergpalais, located in the heart of Dresden, will open its doors in spring 2024 after extensive renovation. The new lobby and the newly designed rooms and suites offer sophisticated, luxurious comfort and inspire with meaningful charm. Experience the noticeable innovations at the Taschenbergpalais in a symbiosis of tradition and modernity. The high ceilings of the former royal palais complete the royal flair and luxurious character. The designs of the rooms were completed in three different variations, and were inspired by the magnificent buildings of the Saxon era. The highest quality materials were used and custom-made pieces of furniture and fabrics crafted with skilful handwork. From a culinary point of view, the royal palace delights with a wide variety of restaurants, a café with a show patisserie, a bar and numerous event areas. The spa and pool area will delight hotel guests with unique baroque design elements of Dresden's cityscape. The pool is set under a starry sky and Finnish saunas, a steam bath and an infrared cabin complete this oasis of well-being.
