RED SEA JORDAN

— LOCATION —

Aqaba is the southernmost city of Jordan and the kingdom's only seaport. The aquatic city of Aqaba is best known for its marine life and coral reefs which have existed and have been evolving for more than 20,000 years bearing witness to the many civilisations which have called Aqaba their home.

Half of Aqaba's coastline is covered in coral reefs and the 21 diving locations allow for the discovery of one of the largest collections of soft corals in the world, amounting to 110 species along with 120 species of hard corals and over 1000 species of fish.

Aqaba is a warm and inviting city, fringed with palm trees, shopping avenues and a vast array of leisure, sporting and entertainment facilities. Ideal for its year round sunshine, Aqaba is the perfect location to explore all the delights that Jordan has to offer.

Aqaba is strategically located within close proximity to the Rose Red City of Petra, the Valley of the Moon Wadi Rum and the Dead Sea, which makes it a popular destination for tourists looking to explore this celebrity triad of unique locations.

— THE HOTEL —
