Front Foyer – “Mood” Lounge

The “Mood” Lounge, located on Floor 5 of the hotel, is a pre-function space, offering coffee and cocktails, and creates a casual, relaxed and free communication space for the guests. For this “front foyer”, the architect has created a space that is unforgettable. Individually manufactured modern furniture masterpieces enhance the experience.

Sparkling with Romance – Jinxiu Ballroom

Embracing an expansive 860 sq m, the Jinxiu Ballroom is a dazzling spectacle of gold from every angle, exuding an air of refined grandeur. The double-level mezzanine design breaks free from the constraints of indoor space, effortlessly accommodating events of all scales. With a soaring 7-meter ceiling, the hall can host up to 800 guests simultaneously.

Luxury Skylight – Grand Ballroom

The Grand Ballroom (770 sq m) is a truly intimate conference space which can be freely divided into three private spaces based on four square columns, allowing multiple meetings at the same time. The ceiling is the focal element of the design concept, featuring a holographic projection skylight, cleverly connected to the grey marble, creating a unique atmosphere. The ballroom can accommodate up to 600 people, and is adjacent to the “Mood” Lounge.

Pink Memory – Junior Ballroom

As an arresting surprise, the designer presents the Junior Ballroom's (530 sq m) key visual: the classical vaulted roof. With the pink wall decoration, the interlaced circular chandeliers hung above the hallway of the ballroom hall, and a gentle, classical and elegant atmosphere within its square pillared walls, the Junior Ballroom is popular for classical-style wedding banquets.

This outstanding venue is also equipped with the latest LED display facility and can be flexibly divided into three spaces. It can be used for multiple conferences and weddings which can accommodate up to 300 people.
